

Randy Gordon—Biography

Education: Ph.D. (Law), University of Edinburgh; LL.M., Columbia University; J.D., Washburn University; Ph.D. (English), M.A., B.A., University of Kansas

Professional Background: Randy Gordon is a Founding Managing Partner of the Dallas and Fort Worth offices of Duane Morris LLP, where he focuses on antitrust, RICO, class-action, and university-related matters. His professional activities include service as Past Chair of the State Bar of Texas Antitrust Section, a member of the Competition Torts Committee of the Antitrust Section of the ABA, and an elected member of both the WS Society and the American Law Institute. He has been recognized in antitrust law by Chambers & Partners, Best Lawyers in America, Global Competition Review 100, Who's Who Legal, and Super Lawyers and is an Inaugural Member of the Texas Million Dollar Verdict Hall of Fame. He also routinely offers public commentary on antitrust, RICO, and class action matters (Chicago Tribune, The Economist, Rolling Stone).

Educational Affiliations: Randy is an Executive Professor of Law and History and was a Faculty Fellow in the School of Innovation at Texas A&M University, a past Faculty Fellow of the Institute for Advanced Studies at the University of Edinburgh, a former adjunct at SMU, and a Fellow of the Dallas Institute. He has also served as an Advisory Board Member of the College of LA&S, the Hall Center for the Humanities, and the Spencer Museum of Art at KU and as a Key Collaborator in the Beyond Text project at the University of Edinburgh.

Publications: Randy is a frequent lecturer and writer. (See SSRN page). The Performance of Law: Everyday Lawyering at the Intersection of Advocacy and Imagination was published in 2022 by Routledge; Rehumanizing Law: A Theory of Law and Democracy was published in 2011 by the U of Toronto Press; book chapters on legal theory were recently published by Ashgate and Springer. He has law-review articles published in journals of California, Cambridge, Columbia, Florida, Loyola, Marquette, Nevada, Ohio State, Penn, San Francisco, SMU, Southwestern, Suffolk, Tulane, and Vermont. Randy's RICO articles are routinely cited as authority by courts, commentators and practitioners, including in pattern jury instructions, leading law reviews (e.g., Columbia, Harvard, NYU, and Yale), and briefs in cases before the US Supreme Court (e.g., Anza, Bank of China, and Bridge).