WEALTH MANAGEMENT, RISK MANAGEMENT, AND INTERNATIONAL TAX: MASTER OF JURISPRUDENCE/LL.M. (Distance Education)

SUMMER 2019 AND FALL 2019 PRIORITY REGISTRATION DATES & TIMES

Thursday, March 28 – LL.M. and M.Jur. Students

Beginning at 7:00 am, Thursday, March 28, graduate law students may register for summer and fall 2019 classes by submitting an Electronic Course Registration form to Student Services. The registration form is available on the law school website Student Services page under Forms & Applications.

Student Services will be open at 7:00 am on all designated priority registration days. If you have any registration issues, please contact Student Services at 817-212-4001.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

Use the Electronic Registration Form (click for link) found on the law school website to register for classes. This form must be filled out and submitted electronically to the Office of Student Services for processing. We cannot take telephone, e-mail, or faxed registration requests.

Other Important Registration Rules

- Student Services will e-mail your @email.tamu.edu account if your registration request cannot be processed for any reason.

Dropping Classes

Please see Academic Calendar for last day to drop classes date for your program.

All graduate law students must submit an Electronic Course Registration form and receive approval from the program director to drop classes. The registration form is available on the law school website Student Services page under Forms & Applications.

Location Selection in Howdy

All Wealth and Risk Management graduate distance education students must indicate their location via Howdy each term to ensure correct billing and to comply with state and federal rules. The location selected should indicate where you intend to physically reside for the semester. *You must select your location for both the summer and fall 2019 semesters.

Steps to complete this process:

1. Log in to Howdy.
2. Click on the My Record tab.
3. Under the Registration banner, select Distance Education Location Update.
4. Select the Term. You must select your location for both the summer and fall 2018 semesters.
5. Update your Location by selecting your state and/or country of residence from the drop down menus.
6. Submit the location change.

Technology Requirements

Students are expected to know how to manage computer issues and to have reliable technologies to fulfill course requirements. An up-to-date PC or Mac-based computer with access to high-speed internet is required.

Courses delivered online may be either synchronous or asynchronous. Synchronous online classes require students and instructors to be online at the same time. Lectures, discussions, chats, etc. occur at a specific time. All students must be online at that specific hour in order to participate.

With asynchronous online courses, lectures, assignments, and other materials are posted online and students may access the material at any time, although the instructor generally sets a definite time period in which students may participate in each online class.

Hybrid courses (also known as blended courses) include both face-to-face classroom meetings and an online component. The online component may be either synchronous or asynchronous.

Tuition and Fee Refund Policy

The tuition and refund policy can be found on the LL.M. & M.Jur. Programs page of the law school website. Click here to view the policy. Please contact Student Business Services at 817-212-4081 with any additional questions.

COURSE SCHEDULES

All Wealth and Risk Management graduate students will register for the following courses. Please note that graduate students will not be registered until they have submitted their Electronic Registration form as discussed in the Registration Procedures section here and have indicated their location in Howdy as discussed here.

ONLINE COURSE SCHEDULE FOR CURRENT STUDENTS

Before graduation, all San Antonio students must take one online course, and summer 2019 is one opportunity to take that course. San Antonio graduate program students who have completed 15 hours or more before start of fall 2019 may take 3 credits from the following list of fully-online courses in summer 2019 to fulfill their online course requirement. Those San Antonio students who began their program in spring 2019 may fulfill their online course requirement by taking one of the online courses offered in summer 2019, but they are not eligible to enroll in fall 2019 online courses. Other online course offerings are anticipated to be offered in spring 2020 and summer 2020.

Please note that graduate students will not be registered until they have submitted their Electronic Registration form as discussed in Registration Procedures section here.

MASTER OF JURISPRUDENCE/LL.M. : GENERAL IN-RESIDENCE PROGRAMS (Fort Worth Campus)

SUMMER 2019 AND FALL 2019 PRIORITY REGISTRATION DATES & TIMES

Thursday, March 28 – LL.M. and M.Jur. Students

Beginning at 7:00 am, Thursday, March 28, graduate law students must register for fall 2019 classes by submitting an Electronic or Paper Course Registration form to Student Services. The registration form is available on the law school website Student Services page under Forms & Applications.

Student Services will be open at 7:00 am on all designated priority registration days. If you have any registration issues, please contact Student Services at 817-212-4001.

REGISTRATION PROCEDURES

There are two ways to register. (We cannot take telephone, e-mail, or faxed registration requests.)

1. Electronic Registration Form. (click for link) This form may be filled out and submitted electronically to the Office of Student Services for processing.
2. Paper Registration Form. (click for link) This form may be printed, filled out, and submitted to the Office of Student Services in person for processing.

Other Important Registration Rules

- Student Services will e-mail your @email.tamu.edu account if your registration request cannot be processed for any reason.

Dropping Classes

Please see Academic Calendar for last day to drop classes date for your program.

All graduate law students must submit an Electronic or Paper Course Registration form and receive approval from the program director to drop classes. The registration form is available on the law school website Student Services page under Forms & Applications.

Limited Enrollment Classes & Waitlists

You must submit an Electronic or Paper Course Registration form to Student Services to register for limited enrollment classes (identified as such in the schedule). Student Services will register students for these classes prioritized by each student's earned hours. Waitlisting for these classes will be prioritized by each student's earned credits. Student Services will notify by e-mail all students who have requested registration in these classes to let them know whether they are registered or waitlisted. If you do not see your registration on Howdy, check your law school e-mail (@email.tamu.edu) or contact Student Services to inquire about your waitlist status.

Important message about waitlists: If you are waitlisted for a class, you must submit a course drop form to be removed from that waitlist. If a seat becomes available at any time and you have not submitted a course drop form, you will be registered for that class accordingly. If a seat becomes available and we cannot register you due to a time conflict or overload, and we cannot reach you, we will move to the next person on the waitlist. Please monitor your e-mail frequently if you are on a waitlist.

Technology Requirements

Students are expected to know how to manage computer issues and to have reliable technologies to fulfill course requirements. An up-to-date PC or Mac-based computer with access to high-speed internet is required.

Courses delivered online may be either synchronous or asynchronous. Synchronous online classes require students and instructors to be online at the same time. Lectures, discussions, chats, etc. occur at a specific time. All students must be online at that specific hour in order to participate.

With asynchronous online courses, lectures, assignments, and other materials are posted online and students may access the material at any time, although the instructor generally sets a definite time period in which students may participate in each online class.

Hybrid courses (also known as blended courses) include both face-to-face classroom meetings and an online component. The online component may be either synchronous or asynchronous.

Independent Study

Independent Study is a one-credit course graded on a pass/fail basis. To receive credit, the student must spend at least 60 hours during the semester in which the student enrolls in Independent Study. Students are responsible for keeping a log of their hours and submitting the log to the supervising faculty member at the end of the semester.

A student may satisfy an independent study by researching and writing a paper of at least 10 pages or reading materials assigned by the sponsoring faculty member. A student may earn no more than two credits through Independent Study.

Students may not enroll in an Independent Study without the consent of a faculty sponsor, who must be a full-time faculty member. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs may approve Independent Study credit with an adjunct faculty member if a full-time faculty member acts as a co-sponsor for the student and reviews the student's work product.

Cancellation of Classes

Classes may be cancelled for low enrollment. This decision is made by the Associate Dean for Academic Affairs.

Tuition and Fee Refund Policy

The tuition and refund policy can be found on the LL.M. & M.Jur. Programs page of the law school website. Click here to view the policy. Please contact Student Business Services at 817-212-4081 with any additional questions.

Fall 2019 Final Exam Schedule for Fort Worth General Resident Graduate Programs

Please consider the final exam schedule carefully when registering for classes. Please consult Academic Standards in the Student Handbook for the rules about rescheduling exams. The Associate Dean for Academic Affairs must approve requests to reschedule exams and will do so only if the exam rescheduling rules in the Academic Standards are satisfied. Rescheduled exams will be administered as soon as possible after the scheduled time. No exams will be given before the scheduled time. Students who are entitled to reasonable accommodations under the Americans with Disabilities Act must arrange for accommodations with the Assistant Dean of Student Affairs. Please consult the law school's Examination Policies and Procedures for more information.
