1)	All of the information I have provided herein is true and correct;
2)	I have read the Academic Standards, Honor Code, and Student Conduct Code sections of the Law School Student Handbook.
3)	If I am registering for a Summer term, I understand that if I am working more than 20 hours a week, I may not enroll for more than 6 semester hours, including non-classroom courses such as Externship and Law Review.
4)	If I am registering for the Fall or Spring term as a full-time student, I understand that I may not take more than 16 credit hours per semester and the majority of my classes must be scheduled in the day. By registering as a full-time student, I affirm that I am not working more than 20 hours per week during any semester in which I am enrolled in more than 12 class hours.
5)	I understand that, if I withdraw or drop courses, tuition is refunded only on a limited basis based upon the current law school refund policy, which is available from the Financial Services. I understand that I must officially drop courses or withdraw in order to be entitled to any refund. I understand that if my tuition or other payments due to the Law School are past due, the Law School will place a financial hold on my records. I understand that the Law School has the right to turn delinquent accounts over to a collection agency, which may charge additional fees, such as collection or legal fees.
6)	I understand that any false statement by me is subject to sanctions under § 24.4.1 of the Texas A&M University Student Conduct Code.
